

10 THINGS YOU CAN DO TO REFRESH YOUR HOME FAST!

CLEAN

DEEP CLEAN

There's no better way to refresh your home than to get it fresh and clean. To do a proper deep clean you need someone to clean all of the surfaces, scrub all showers, bathtubs, sinks and toilets. All mirrors, light fixtures and cabinets should be wiped down, and all rooms vacuumed, swept and mopped. Have the oven cleaned, and all linens and bedding washed and carpets shampooed. Anything that you can think of to clean, have it done!

DECLUTTER

Our homes get a lot of clutter, let's face it, we have a lot of things! When you tack on spouses and kids to that, there can be stuff everywhere. To refresh your home, you'll want to remove all of the daily build up that has accumulated over time. This includes going through the pantry and fridge and organizing them as well as throwing out old food items that have gone bad or donating food items that you know you will not use. Go through your 'junk drawer' and see what you really need what items you are holding on to for no reason. Go through all of the cabinets and closets and get them organized.

PURGE

You can't possibly love and adore and have to keep every single thing in your home. In order for a refresh, you need to purge things from time to time. This is especially true for the kids's rooms and any toys, clothing and stuffed animals that they no longer love.

SELL

Now that you've gone through all of your stuff and decided what you must keep and what you simply do not need anymore, it's time to cash in! List the items online via tools like Facebook Marketplace, Poshmark or Craigslist. There's nothing wrong with having a good old fashioned garage sale to refresh your home and make some cash as well.

GET DIRTY

PAINT

A new coat of paint can be a game changer when it comes to refreshing your space. You don't even have to change the color if you don't want to. But, a fresh coat can get rid of dirt and any scuff marks and scratches that have built up over time. If you are feeling especially sassy and adventurous, you can also change up the color.

REARRANGE YOUR FURNITURE

A little Feng shui goes a long way when it comes to refreshing your home. You don't have to buy new furniture to give your living space a new look, all it takes is a little rearranging. Move the couch, the coffee table, the TV..anything you can think of and e enjoy a fresh space.

MAKE ARTWORK/WALL HANGINGS

Turn your family memories into permanent fixtures in your home by framing them and hanging them up. You can also frame some of the kids' artwork or a piece of art that's been hanging out on the floor of your closet

ADD

PILLOWS

Adding pops of color with cozy pillows makes a difference when it comes to refreshing your home. The color will make it feel like a whole new space while the comfort of pillows will be inviting and encourage you and the guests to stay a while and relax.

PLANTS

Plants can add life to the space as well as texture and volume. They will literally help breathe new life into your home and you can have fun experimenting with different kinds of plants, real and fake as well as different colors of the plants and the pots they come in. Add some fun rocks to the pots for a look that will make you feel as if you have just walked into a

CANDLES

Add candles to make the room smell great and feel cozy. There's just something about a candle burning that makes spaces feel so homey and cozy. When you light a candle it can help lighten up a room, even when it is

With these 10 simple tips, you'll be feeling like you are living in a brand new home in no time. But, the best part is, there is no moving required! It's the same space that you live in and love, just with a refreshed feel.
